

CERTIFIED LEAD RENOVATOR TRAINING CLASSES
BROUGHT TO BY THE REMODELORS COUNCIL OF
THE BUILDERS ASSOCIATION OF GREATER INDIANAPOLIS

PRESENTED BY: TOM VANDER LUITGAREN, VAN VALER LAW FIRM, LLP

Starting on April 22, 2010, if your company engages in remodeling and repair/maintenance, electrical work, plumbing, painting, carpentry, or window replacement that disturbs 6 square feet or more of paint per room inside, or 20 square feet or more on the exterior of a home, child care facility or school built before 1978 then you must have at least one worker from your firm be a certified lead renovator. Fines can be up to $32,500 per day per violation.

This training will focus on new work practices and important information needed to comply with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Lead-Based Paint, Renovation, Repair, and Painting Program which goes into effect April 22, 2010.

Attend the full-day training class and receive a certification good for five years. Class sizes are limited so REGISTER today.
