Eight Students Awarded Builders Association of Greater Indianapolis Scholarships Totaling $12,500

The Builders Association of Greater Indianapolis (BAGI) announced the winners of its annual scholarship competition. This year, BAGI awarded $12,500 to eight recipients in order to encourage students to pursue careers in the home building industry in the Central Indiana area. Since 1989, the program has awarded $309,350 to 297 recipients.

This year's recipients are:

Seth Bollier, Construction Engineering Management Technology, IUPUI
Christian Brinegar, Construction Engineering Management Technology, IUPUI
Timothy Gannon, Construction Engineering Management Technology, IUPUI
Patrick Gray, Building Construction Management, Purdue University
Thomas Smith, Construction Management, Ball State University
Ana Sprowl, Construction Engineering Management Technology, IUPUI
Robert Steele, Building Construction Management, Purdue University
Elizabeth Watzlavik, Building Construction Management, Purdue University

The Builders Association has two scholarship funds: the H.F. Tim Hines Scholarship and the Richard Sapp Scholarship. Eligible students must be enrolled in a construction technology or a related construction program. BAGI's scholarship programs have been created in honor of past leaders and members of the organization. Through these programs, the Association hopes to encourage individuals who have an interest in working within the residential construction industry to pursue higher education.

Information about the scholarship program and the Builders Association is online at www.bagi.com.
